Editor's Comment

After all the recent sunshine, at the time of going to press snow is forecast. I hope the weather improves for the Easter holidays and you are able to go to some of the events on pages 10 and 12. We have also listed Easter church services on page 10.

So much is going on in our area this month. A team of local girls will be taking part in The Playtex Moonwalk and the Burgess Hill Bike Ride will take place in June. Both these events are well worth sponsoring.

I love the illustration 'Camelephant' by John Vernon Lord (p.12). Lots of John's work was inspired by Ditchling and the Downs. I'm sure readers will enjoy his exhibition at the University of Brighton.

'An unprecedented success in Ditchling 1864' is all about St Margaret's church. I really enjoy reading about local history and hope to print many such articles in future issues.

Roger Linn has written a very amusing article about the history of Ditchling Rugby Football Club. Definitely a good read for our male readers!

My friends and I went along to the 'Mad Cow Hustle' on 17th March (p.33). We had a wonderful time and danced non-stop. It was good to see the total mixture of ages – I look forward to the next event.

Although our deadline for copy is 7th April, it is a good idea to send us details of your event as soon as possible.
